Wine Enthusiast
Luminous notes of crisp Mirabelle plum and slate extend from nose to finish in this crystalline dry Riesling. It's a pristine, fresh-fruited wine that offsets juicy grapefruit flavor against layers of smoke and crushed mineral tones. The finish is peppered by lingering hits of salt and spice. Delightful now but should drink well through 2024.

Best Tesco wines:
Top buys for this summer

Yum, yum, yum! Don't let memories of the anodyne and sugary German Rieslings of yesteryear put you off this delicious dry wine from one of the Rheingau's leading estates. There is a touch (8.7g/L) of residual sugar, but the racy acidity means that it doesn't taste sweet at all. Only 11% alcohol, and with fantastic ageing potential if you wanted to buy an extra bottle or two to lay down, this is a perfect wine for sipping on a summer's evening, overtly floral, and with a purity of lemon citrus and peach fruit. Elegant, poised and dangerously drinkable.

2019		Wine Enthusiast Sharply edged and seductively smoky, this medium-dry Kabinett drinks like a feinherb, a few shades drier than the producer's regular Kabinett bottling. Crisp pear, green apple and lime flavors are zesty and spry on the palate. The finish is marked by a shock of lemon-lime acidity and lingering notes of salt and slate. Best now–2025. — Anna Lee C. 2019		Wine Enthusiast Pert white grapefruits and lemons are dusted by slate and salt in this vivacious Kabinett. It's a thrilling shock of lime and steel on the palate, edged by a lingering but judicious sweetness. It drinks beautifully now, but should hold well through 2029. Anna Lee C. 2018		Wine Enthusiast Crisp green apple and honeycomb introduce this enticingly zippy kabinett. The palate is delicately sweet but offset neatly by tart lime and quince flavors. The finish is steely, long and dry. It's enjoyable now but should hold well through 2028. — Anna Lee C. Iijima	91/100 Punkte Points

GLOBAL RIESLING MASTERS 2022
Showing a pale lemon-green colour, the wine is benchmark Riesling, with apricot, peach and pear fruits accented by lemon zest and a touch of cream from large, used wooden barrels. Medium dry (8g/l), the wine demonstrates defined texture and flavours, supported by racy acidity, leading to a dry, savoury finish. Excellent with river fish, umami-accented dishes, or a selection of international cheeses.
